Schools Eligible for School SES in 2011-2012

Supplemental Educational Services (SES) are additional academic instruction designed to increase the academic achievement of students in Title I schools in school improvement. In Portsmouth, certain students attending Brighton, Churchland Academy, and John Tyler Elementary Schools are eligible to participate in the tutorial services which occur after the school day. Parents of eligible students select any approved provider that they feel best meets their child(ren)'s needs. The number of enrolled students, eligible students, and participating students are shown in the chart below.

All Supplemental Educational Services tutoring sessions are held in Portsmouth's schools participating in SES except Sylvan Learning of Chesapeake which is being held at their location.
